

Suggested 4-Year iBBA course sequence with a concentration in Finance

Semester	Year
	Freshman	Sophomore	Junior	Senior
Fall	First Year Seminar – Going Global	BA 211 Principles of Accounting I	BA 303 Legal Environment of Business	BA 453 Human Resource Management and Business Ethics
	ENG 101 Composition	BA 203 Introduction to Statistics	BA 307 Introduction to Management and Organizational Behavior	EC 450 International Economics
	MATH 101 Precalculus I	EC 212 Principles of Microeconomics	BA 360 Introduction to Marketing	EC 311 Intermediate Macroeconomics or Non-Business Elective
	General Education Domain 4 or 5	Psychology or Sociology	EC 350 Money and Banking	BA 404 Corporate Finance
	BA 103 Introduction to Business	Non-Business Elective	Non-Business Elective	Non-Business Elective
Spring	ISCT 204 Computer Applications in Business Analysis	BA 212 Principles of Accounting II	BA 310 Introduction to Management Information Systems and e-Commerce	BA 490 Business Policy and Strategy
	MCOM 150 – Principles of Public Speaking	BA 302 Quantitative Methods	BA 330 Introduction to Finance	BA 420 Investment and Portfolio Management
	General Education Domain 2	EC 211 Principles of Macroeconomics	MCOM 350 Business and Professional Communication	BA 426 Financial Institutions or BA 473 International Financial Management
	General Education Domain 4 or 5	Non-Business Elective	BA 395 Production, Supply Chain and Distribution Management	EC 312 Intermediate Microeconomics or Non-Business Elective
	BA 112 Mind of the Entrepreneur	Non-Business Elective	BA 426 Financial Institutions or BA 473 International Financial Management	Non-Business Elective

General Education Courses

Non-Business Electives

Business Core Courses

Supporting iBBA Electives<sup>1</sup>

Courses Required for BSB Junior Level Standing

Courses Required for BSB Senior Level Standing

<sup>1</sup> BA 103 and BA 112 are suggested iBBA elective courses for freshmen. A student can instead take other (higher level) iBBA electives in his/her junior or senior year.