

SHENANDOAH UNIVERSITY

Department of Psychology

Loudoun Therapeutic Riding Foundation
Practicum Placement PSY 401G-101

PRACTICUM PLACEMENT DETAILS

Practicum Placement Identification Number: PSY 401G-101

Description of Practicum Placement: Students will have the opportunity to participate in equine-assisted activities and learn about administration of an equine therapy program.

Availability: Offered every Fall and Spring semester

Special Prerequisites: Successful completion of PSY 101 (General Psychology) and experience with horses

Hours Required: 120

Other Requirements: Detailed journal of all activities, experiences, and observations; 1- to 2-page reflection paper describing overall practicum experience and how you believe it will be relevant to your future educational and/or professional goals.

Credits Earned: 3

Faculty Contact: Krista Zimmermann, Ph.D. (lzimmerm@su.edu)