Volunteer Alert—The Winchester-Frederick County Historical Society

Do some good but not get paid?

The Winchester-Frederick County Historical Society – your neighbor across the pond – is looking for a few students from the Conservatory or elsewhere who are willing to volunteer as assistants at one of our museums for a couple of hours a week.

Volunteering for a non-profit corporation like ours does have benefits, even if those are not financial. You get to meet thousands of visitors from around the country (networking), learn a little history (educational), and add another notch to your resume, hopefully to enhance your chances at securing a paying job in the future.

Contact us at (540) 662-6550, and let us detail the opportunities.
