

PERFORMANCE FORUM PRF 101 - 101

About the Requirements

In performance, students must acquire an overview understanding of the repertory in their major performance area and the ability to perform from a cross-section of that repertory.

Students should have opportunities to experience a broad range of repertory such as keyboard recitals, orchestral excerpts, jazz chamber groups, theatrical performances, dance concerts, vocal chamber groups or student choreography, and other types of performances.

Full-time undergraduate students will register for PRF 101, Performance Forum, as a class valued at .5 credits per semester for six semesters taken continuously from the time of matriculation until the requirement is completed. If this requirement places a student in an overload situation, the fee will be waived.

Part-time students must also complete six semesters of PRF 101 but have the option of not registering continuously.

Transfer students must register for PRF 101 every semester they are enrolled up to 6 semesters.

- Performance Attendance will consist only of events scheduled as a regular class at 3:00 p.m. on Mondays.
- Events will provide students with a broad sampling of repertoire to include music, theatre and dance.
- Events offered will range from no less than 40 minutes in length to a maximum of 50 minutes.

Grading will be as follows:

- A = 7 Performance Forum Attendances
- B = 6 Performance Forum Attendances
- C = 5 Performance Forum Attendances
- D = 4 Performance Forum Attendances

Performance Forum Record Keeping

- Attendance will be monitored by adult professional staff members. Attendance slips will be distributed for up to 10 minutes after the start of a performance and slips will be collected at the end of the event.
- Programs will not be accepted as evidence of attendance. Attendance slips are accepted only from the student whose name appears on the slip.
- Records are maintained in the Conservatory Office.
- Be sure to write your correct Student ID clearly on the slip. Each performance is recorded by Student ID only. You will NOT receive credit if your ID is incorrect or missing. All information on attendance slips must be legible and complete.
- A Performance Forum Record is available in the Conservatory Office. However, the most accurate way to stay on top is to keep your own records. You may stop by the Conservatory Office to view your documented concerts.

About Performance Forum

- Students will not be excused from Performance Forum for student teaching, practicum, etc.
- Students may not be removed from Performance Forum by faculty members for rehearsals or other program if the program is still in progress.

Credit will not be earned...

- If your ID is incorrect or missing from the attendance slip.
- If the information on the attendance slips is illegible and incomplete.
- If your attendance slips are turned in by a student other than yourself.
- For events in which a student performs, nor for individual student or divisional recitals.

PRF 101-101 Failures

- Full-time students who earn a grade of F in any semester must register for additional semesters of PRF 101-101 until six semesters are successfully completed.
- PRF 101-102 can be added to your schedule to double up ensuring the fulfillment of the six semester requirement.
- Attendances recorded in a semester of failure will not be carried over into a new semester.
- The full requirement must be earned within the semester the student is registered for credit.

Performance Forum events are posted weekly online.
