College Central Network: Create a free account to search for jobs and internships. Visit the 15 colleges of the VFIC to find opportunities.

Career Resources
MyPlac.com
Discovery and Placement Resource for Shenandoah University students!

Career Services Weekly

UVA Fall Job and Internship Fair
Thursday, November 6 – Friday, November 7
$24,000 Master's plus loan forgiveness.
For more information, visit the UVA Fall Job and Internship Fair website at http://career.virginia.edu/students/events/fjif.php

The Career Services Office will be providing transportation to the UVA Fall Job and Internship Fair on Thursday, November 7. A van will be leaving Shenandoah University at 10:00 am and returning at approximately 4:00 pm. A sign-up list will be posted in the Career Services Office.

The Fall Job and Internship Fair is the perfect place to make a good first impression! It is a great opportunity to meet employers in person, learn about different career fields, and develop skills, networking, and discovering specific companies that you may want to explore. Employers will provide a taste of potentially doing what you love and for whom you can gain experience and get a feel for the company culture. Participating employers throughout the United States will be in attendance. You should be prepared to present your résumé, answer questions about your background, and provide professional examples that highlight your abilities. If you have any questions or concerns about accepting offers from Shenandoah University students, please contact us at enemec@su.edu.

Visit www.career15.com for more information.

Some students are choosing to apply for the James Madison Fellowship.

The Madison Fellowship, administered by the Madison Fellows Foundation, is a competitive fellowship program designed to attract and support the nation's most promising secondary school history teachers. The fellowship, which is worth $24,000 to complete a Master's degree in the field of U.S. History, is intended to provide a financial incentive for students to pursue educational degrees and teaching careers in history.

The fellowship is awarded to two secondary teachers per year per state. Full details of the fellowship as well as the application process can be found on the Madison Fellows Foundation’s website, http://www.madisonfellows.org.

Since its inception in 1992, the program has awarded over 1,200 fellowships to $24,000 to complete a Master's degree in fields related to the U.S. Constitution. The program, offers pre-employment placement in secondary education institutions, and provides one James Madison Fellowship per year per state. Full details of the fellowship as well as the application process can be found on the Madison Fellows Foundation’s website, http://www.madisonfellows.org.

Qualifications
• Digital literacy (including web-based and cloud computing)
• Experience in creating, designing, and distributing digital content
• The ability to learn new digital tools and methodologies

For more information, contact Elyse Nemec, Assistant Director of Annual Giving, at enemec@su.edu. Applications are due October 1 for the Fall 2014 fellowship. Interviews will take place before the close of business on November 2, 2013. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Elyse Nemec, Assistant Director of Annual Giving, at enemec@su.edu.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact Elyse Nemec, Assistant Director of Annual Giving, at enemec@su.edu.