"Vision is the art of seeing what is invisible to others. Upon graduating, Tabatabai accompanied the future of pharmacy education, emphasized communication as an essential tool and developed in her a strong academic foundation, incorporated technology in classroom instruction and fostered empathy for patients through the example of the faculty. "The importance of giving back to SU. "I value the role the School of Pharmacy is a rigorous profession," Tabatabai said when asked about the time, take all the help I can get and remember to enjoy it!"
