To succeed academically and obtain a high school diploma is critical to the future of students, schools, community and families must work together to ensure successful outcomes, especially students faced with challenges,” said Restivo. “I believe that the most rewarding experiences for me are when I see students succeed, and their families are proud,” she added.

Silvia Restivo ‘12

www.tapif.org

Career Resources

This program, Career 15, helps students and recent graduates navigate their transition from school to work. Career 15 offers a suite of services designed to make a difference in their career development. Services are free and open to all Shenandoah students and alumni.

More information on Career 15...