

Shenandoah Conservatory of Shenandoah University announces

DMA Teaching Assistantships 2010-2011

Duties: Assistantship responsibilities include instruction in applied areas and undergraduate academic areas, and maintenance of high professional and ethical standards. The workload will be approximately nine contact hours per week.

Financial Information: The award includes a tuition waiver for up to 18 credit hours per academic year and a $9000 stipend annually. The award is renewable for three years pending satisfactory performance of assigned duties.

Application and admission: All students accepted into the doctoral program at Shenandoah Conservatory may apply. Applicants must have successfully completed all admission procedures, including an audition if required.

To apply, forward a current resume or curriculum vitae with a letter of interest to:

Dr. Karen Walker, Associate Dean for Graduate Studies
Shenandoah Conservatory
1460 University Drive
Winchester, VA, 22601
kwalker@su.edu
540-665-4542

- Inquiries should include applicants full name, email address, phone number and performance area or field of interest.
- Electronic submission preferred.
- Subject line: DMA Teaching Assistantship

Shenandoah University

Shenandoah Conservatory of Shenandoah University offers comprehensive curricula in music, theatre and dance, and boasts an enrollment of over 750 students. Degrees are offered at the undergraduate, masters, artist diploma and doctoral levels. Doctoral programs exist in all performance areas, conducting, music education and vocal pedagogy. The campus is located in the beautiful Shenandoah Valley and is 70 miles east of the Washington D.C. metropolitan area.

Application Screening will begin April 1, 2010