2010 CMI Clinicians

About CMI:

Equipping Church Music Leaders

- Observe and learn from nationally known church music leaders, Paul Westermeyer and David Music
- Earn credit toward a degree or certificate or come just for the experience
- Receive personal attention from clinicians made possible by the small setting
- Practical, hands-on workshop for church and school musicians
- Gain practical knowledge and experience with handbells
- Ecumenical programs
- Great for musicians in local church, school or after-school programs
- Participate in a working handbell choir
- Plan, prepare and lead daily worship services
- Meet others who will expand your horizons and inspire you to greater creativity in your musical leadership
- Explore a wide variety of music types and worship resources

PAUL WESTERMEYER is professor of church music at Luther Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota, where, in addition to teaching, he serves as Cantor for the Seminary community and administers the Master of Sacred Music Program, a degree program of Luther Seminary in cooperation with St. Olaf College. A musician and pastor whose doctorate is from the University of Chicago, he has been national chaplain of the American Guild of Organists, chair of Ecclesiastical Concerns for the Association of Lutheran Church Musicians, and a board member of the Leadership Program for Musicians. He has been president of the Hymn Society in the United States and Canada, served two terms as editor of its journal, "The Hymn," and in 2004 was made a fellow. His books include "The Church Musician," "With Tongues of Fire," "Let Justice Sing: Hymnody and Justice," "Te Deum: The Church and Music," "The Heart of the Matter: Church Music as Praise, Prayer, Proclamation, Story, and Gift," "Let the People Sing: Hymn Tunes in Perspective," and "Rise, O Church: Reflections on the Church, Its Music, and Empire."

DAVID W. MUSIC is professor of church music and graduate program director in the School of Music at Baylor University, where he has taught since 2002. In addition to his teaching and administrative responsibilities, he serves as director of the annual Baylor Sacred Harp sing. Music is the author of "Christian Hymnody in Twentieth-Century Britain and America: An Annotated Bibliography" (2001), "Instruments in Church: A Collection of Source Documents" (1998), and "Hymnology: A Collection of Source Readings" (1996). He has co-authored or edited three other books, as well as publishing editions of numerous works. Music is the author of over 200 articles and reviews in a wide variety of books and periodicals. His published compositions and arrangements include Christmas Sinfonias: Classic Duets for Organ and Piano (2002) and All Creatures of Our God and King: Hymn Enhancements for Organ and Piano (2000), as well as anthems, service music, hymn texts and tunes, music for recorders, and music for handbells. He served as editor of "The Hymn" (the journal of the Hymn Society in the United States and Canada, 1990-96) and as chair of the New Materials Subcommittee for "The Baptist Hymnal" (1991). He is a member of the Society for American Music; the Hymn Society in the United States and Canada; the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers; the Baptist History and Heritage Society, and the Baptist Church Music Conference, for which he served as president (2001-02) and educational division vice-president (1992-1994).

Credit Information

CMI can be taken as part of a three-year certificate program in church music. Credits may be applied to bachelor's and master's degrees or toward continuing education for teachers. Three undergraduate or graduate credits can be earned per week upon completion of assigned projects. All first-time students will complete an application upon arrival.

Grading Options

All participants in CMI will register for a three-credit class (for each session taken) either for credit or for audit. Students who wish to earn credit will receive academic letter grades (A, B, C, D, F) according to Shenandoah University grading policies. Participants who are not interested in earning academic credit may opt to audit CMI.

Housing and Meals

On-Campus Meals

Meals in the cafeteria may be purchased at the door. The rates are:
