

TUESDAY, AUG. 23

9 a.m. to noon / Move-In Day for residential students begins at the Smith Library parking lot. Students and their families will be directed where to go. Residence Life staff will greet new students in the residence hall lobbies. New students and their families will then head to the Brandt Student Center to complete all other Move-In Day tasks.

9 a.m. to 3 p.m. / Navigator: Through Friday, Aug. 26, the Brandt Student Center is a one-stop center for all new and returning students. Commuter students start here, too! The following offices will be co-located in the BSC: Academics, Auxiliary Services (SU I.D. cards, meal plans), Bookstore, Business Office, Campus Mail, Department of Public Safety, Financial Aid, Housing, iMLearning technology, Institutional Computing (Blackboard and WebAdvisor 30-minute training sessions offered every 15 minutes), Registrar, Smith Library, Student Accounts and Wilkins Wellness Center (health forms only).

3:30 p.m. / New Students line up in the upper parking lot next to the chapel for the New Student Convocation.

4 p.m. / New Student Convocation in the Smith Library Plaza is a celebration for all families and friends of Shenandoah's new students.

5 p.m. / Family Farewell Cookout in McKown Plaza behind the Brandt Student Center is free for all new students, their families and friends.

7:30 p.m. / Campus Scavenger Hunt for all students begins at the Brandt Student Center.

8 p.m. / Outdoor Chillaxin' is a time to unwind with friends, enjoy music – DJ provided – and play cornhole on the soccer field behind the Brandt Student Center.

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 24

9 a.m. to noon / New Student Welcome Sessions at each undergraduate school are mandatory; students will go to sessions based on their academic majors.

11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. / Student & Faculty Lunch is in either Allen Dining Hall or Health Professions Building (depending on student's major).

1 to 3 p.m. / Shenandoah Student 411 in Armstrong Concert Hall is a mandatory session for new students to familiarize them with the university's expectations regarding college life.

1 to 5 p.m. / Navigator in Brandt Student Center is open for new and returning students; see details under Aug. 23 schedule.

7 to 8 p.m. / Residence Hall Welcome Meetings in each residence hall are mandatory meetings for students who live on campus.

7 to 9 p.m. / Commuter Mixer & Info Session is in the Brandt Student Center Food Court.

9 p.m. / Comedian Eric O'Shea performs for all Shenandoah students at 9 p.m. in Armstrong Concert Hall. Visit www.ericoshea.com

THURSDAY, AUG. 25

9 a.m. to noon / Academic Sessions includes time with advisers, placement, auditions, etc.; students will go to sessions based on their academic majors.

1 to 5 p.m. / Navigator in Brandt Student Center is open for new and returning students; see details under Aug. 23 schedule.

2 to 3 p.m. / Mandatory Work Study Orientation is in Henkel Hall, Hester Auditorium; students who applied for work study assignments must attend one of the two sessions (Thursday or Friday).

4 p.m. / See the World for Free starts by visiting the Center for International Programs on the ground floor of Cooley Hall. Learn about opportunities for SU students to see the world.

8:30 to 11 p.m. / Bowling at Northside Lanes includes shuttle vans from the Brandt Student Center to Northside Lanes and back to campus. Questions? Contact studentlife@su.edu

FRIDAY, AUG. 26

9 a.m. to noon / Academic Sessions includes time with advisers, placement, auditions, etc.; students will go to sessions based on their academic majors.

Noon to 3 p.m. / Going Global Lunch & Stop Hunger Now begins in the Brandt Student Center Ferrari Room; then students walk to the former National Guard armory building on campus to help prepare food for people in need around the globe.

1 to 5 p.m. / Navigator in Brandt Student Center is open for new and returning students; see details under Aug. 23 schedule.

Are you curious about outdoor adventures in the Shenandoah Valley?

To sign up for any of the outdoor adventure listed below, sign up in the Brandt Student Center during Navigator hours (see daily schedules) or via suoutdoors@su.edu

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 24

3:30 to 7 p.m. / Outdoor Service Project at Bears Den Trail Center in Clarke County, Va., is limited to 18 participants. Dinner is provided.

THURSDAY, AUG. 25

12:30 to 8 p.m. / Afternoon Hike to a Swimming Hole in the Shenandoah National Park, Va., is limited to 18 participants. Lunch is provided.

FRIDAY, AUG. 26

6 to 8 a.m. / Sunrise Walk at Abrams Creek Wetlands Preserve in Winchester. Breakfast is provided. Limited to 18 participants.

SATURDAY, AUG. 27

8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. / Day Hike to Harpers Ferry, W.Va., is limited to 8 participants. Lunch is provided.

SUNDAY, AUG. 28

7:30 to 11:30 a.m. / Morning Hike at Sky Meadows State Park in Paris, Va., is limited to 8 participants. Breakfast is provided.

3 to 4 p.m. / Mandatory Work Study Orientation is in Henkel Hall, Hester Auditorium; students who applied for work study assignments must attend one of the two sessions (Thursday or Friday).

4 p.m. / Shenandoah Spirit Rally in Shingleton Gymnasium introduces all students to SU athletics, the Buzzin' Dozen Pep Band, Hornets cheerleaders, coaches and student-athletes. New students receive Hornets T-shirts and can win prizes, too!

5 to 7 p.m. / Game On! in Allen Dining Hall. Grab some dinner and refuel for the evening ahead. Use meal plan or pay cash at the door.

9:30 p.m. / iFaceTwit in the Brandt Student Center Ferrari Room is an interactive social media extravaganza for all students. Bring your favorite technology, and enjoy Facebook, Twitter and iPods for face-to-face fun.

SATURDAY, AUG. 27

8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. / Mission Possible is open to all students who want help their Winchester community. Glean fruit at a nearby farm, or lend a hand at the Salvation Army, SPCA or other non-profit organization. Make new friends, too. Sign up in the Brandt Student Center during Navigator or via goodsonchapel@su.edu

Evening / Downtown Winchester Plunge introduces students to their new hometown by eating out, shopping, strolling along the historic walking mall and enjoying an outdoor concert by Shenandoah student bands Dear Creek and Haden Huston & the Leaping Leptons.

SUNDAY, AUG. 28

Noon / University Chapel @ Noon (UC@N) opening service in Goodson Chapel is a blend of the best of ancient traditions and emerging, artful, expressive worship. Contact goodsonchapel@su.edu

11 to 2 p.m. / Sunday Brunch in Allen Dining Hall. Use meal plan or pay cash at the door.

3 to 5 p.m. / Let the Games Begin! Enjoy outdoor games such as volleyball and a giant slip-n-slide in the campus quad. Questions? Contact studentlife@su.edu

7 to 8 p.m. / Residence Hall Meetings in each residence hall are mandatory meetings for students who live on campus.

9 p.m. / Alpha Psi Omega Variety Show in Glaze Studio Theatre inside Ruebush Hall is an over-the-top hilarious end to Welcome Week 2011. It's a theatre tradition open to all students.

MONDAY, AUG. 29

Get yourself up, eat a good breakfast, and make the most of your first day of college classes!

like
Shenandoah University
Student Life

Follow suStudentLife on Twitter, and reach all Student Life staff members via studentlife@su.edu.