

Advance your cybersecurity career with Shenandoah's fully online, 16-month MS in Applied Cybersecurity degree. Prepare to lead teams of cybersecurity specialists or expand your knowledge to implement enterprise cybersecurity policies and conduct incident investigations. The curriculum is designed to prepare you to take the CISSP certification exam. The applied nature of the program ensures that you are ready to solve real-world problems in the workplace.

This degree is intended for applicants with:

- An undergraduate major in computer science, cybersecurity, information technology, information systems OR
- A major in a related area with prior coursework in cybersecurity fundamentals, operating systems, networking and programming.

ROLLING ADMISSIONS

Apply today for the next spring, summer or fall start!

Why Shenandoah's MS in Applied Cybersecurity is right for you:

- Most courses have an eight-week, online format with evening or weekend synchronous classes
- Complete the program fully online or choose electives like Cyberforensics for an on-campus immersion experience
- The Bureau of Labor Statistics indicates an anticipated job growth of 33% through the end of the decade
- Nationally, cybersecurity managers earn more than $138,000 on average, according to ZipRecruiter

Learn more: su.edu/mscybersecurity

1460 University Drive Winchester, VA 22601