

Professional Studies Certificate in Administration & Supervision

SHENANDOAH[®]
UNIVERSITY
Division of Education & Leadership

A Part-time, Two-Year Certificate Program (21 credit hours)

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Professional Studies Certificate in Administration & Supervision is designed to meet the current and changing administrative needs of the public and private schools in Virginia and surrounding states. It incorporates the Virginia Licensure Regulations for School Personnel and the approved program standards of Virginia. The program is designed for those who already have earned a master's degree in a field other than school administration and want to meet the Virginia requirements for licensure in administration and supervision. This program is offered online via Zoom. New cohorts are established annually in the Fall. The program operates year round. A candidate can graduate in two years if they remain on schedule. Shenandoah University supports graduate study at the Master's level through a substantial tuition discount.

ABOUT THE DIVISION OF EDUCATION & LEADERSHIP

Shenandoah University's Division of Education & Leadership (DOEL) prepares practitioner-leaders by offering programs of study that conform to the following principles: practicing in a spirit of collaboration; thoughtful examination of the foundations, current contexts, and future possibilities of the fields of study; encouraging proactive, problem-centered philosophies of educational and professional practice; producing graduates who will be knowledge-driven, competent decision-makers whose thinking is informed by reflective practice; and preparing caring, capable, and reflective teachers, administrators, human services, and public sector practitioners.

As part of efforts to make education more accessible for educators and leaders who serve our communities, all DOEL graduate programs are offered at a reduced tuition rate.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS
