

Post-Master's Assistantships

Eligibility and Duties

Post-Master's Assistantships are awarded to Doctoral or Artist Diploma applicants in performance, conducting and vocal pedagogy. Positions are available in classroom instruction, applied areas, instrumental methods courses (as appropriate), ensemble assistance, stage crew management, and recital scheduling. Maintenance of high professional and ethical standards is expected.

Financial Information

The award includes a tuition waiver for up to 18 credit hours per academic year and a $9000 stipend annually. It is renewable for three years pending satisfactory performance of assigned duties.

Application and Admission

Applicants to Doctoral or Artist Diploma programs at Shenandoah Conservatory may apply for assistantship consideration any time after their Shenandoah University application has been submitted. However, no applicant will be offered an assistantship until they have successfully completed all admission procedures (including an audition) and have been admitted.

To apply, email a letter of interest along with a current résumé or curriculum vitae to: Jeffrey Marlatt (jmarlatt@su.edu).
