

The first-ever Black Alumni Reunion is April 20 & 21!

We are excited to announce that we will be hosting the first Black Alumni Reunion on Friday, April 21 and Saturday, April 22.

During the reunion, we will recognize our 2022 Black Alumni Network award recipients at the Black Excellence Gala at 6:30 p.m. on Friday evening, which is a night dedicated to celebrating Black excellence on campus and in our community. On Saturday at noon, you will have the opportunity to network with current Shenandoah students at the Hornet Cookout & Social and the chance to win awesome raffle prizes. To finish the evening, we will celebrate the Harambee Gospel Choir with their reunion concert, "So Amazing" 50 years of Harambee Gospel Choir at 6 p.m.

This year's annual Dayton Alumni Weekend is April 13 & 14!

Over the weekend, Dayton alumni will make new memories with their classmates while celebrating the birthplace of Shenandoah. They will enjoy the Shenandoah University exhibit at The Heritage Museum during the Welcome Dinner; honor those who have passed at the Memorial Service; recognize reunion classes at the Dayton Society Luncheon; and sing some of the group's favorite tunes at the Thomas House.
