

INTERVIEW ESSENTIALS For Teacher Candidates

- What is your philosophy of education? Of discipline?
- What issues in education are of greatest concern to you? Why?
- Describe the role of the teacher in the learning process.
- What is the role of the teacher in the community?
- How would you individualize instruction in your classroom?
- What special abilities do you have that would benefit your students?
- What prompted you to go into the field of education?
- Do you grade on ability or effort? Why?
- If you found out the slower learners in the class could not read the grade-level book, what would you do?
- Tell me about your student teaching experience.
- How do you feel about observations by supervisors or principals? Why?
- Are you interested in working with students in some extra-curricular activity? If yes, what? If not, why not?