

JENNIFER SOMEONE

777 Street Name, City Name, VA 22601
(777) 777-7777 emailaddress@su.edu

OBJECTIVE

To gain employment as a Music Therapist at The Music Therapy Group of Northern Virginia, LLC

EDUCATION

Master of Music Therapy Anticipated: May 2016
Shenandoah University, Winchester, VA – USA

Professional Studies Program – Music Therapy Certification Anticipated: July 2015
Shenandoah University, Winchester, VA – USA

Special Education Program Completed: January 2012
Teacher Education Center, Taiwan National University of Art, Taiwan

Bachelor of Music in Piano Performance Graduated: June 2010
Tainan University of Technology, Taiwan

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Music Therapy Intern January 2015 – Present
Blue Ridge Hospice, Winchester, VA

- Assessed the need for and implemented music therapy services for terminally ill patients and their families
- Analyzed, tracked, and evaluated clinical goals and interventions of patients
- Completed required documentation for assessments and music therapy services
- Served as a member of the interdisciplinary team
- Presented in assistant living center in-services
- Assisted with planning supportive care events
- Assisted with memorial services as requested by families by providing music

Student Music Therapist

NW Works, Inc. (Adult Developmental Disabilities) August – December 2014

Blue Ridge Hospice (End-of-Life Care) August – December 2014

Northwestern Regional Juvenile Detention Center (Adolescents) January – May 2014

Envoy Health Care of Winchester (Geriatric) January – May 2014

St. Marin De Porres Hospital (Psychiatric), Taiwan October 2008 – August 2011

- Led group and individual music therapy sessions with clients with developmental disabilities, end-of-life care, psychiatric disorders, geriatric, physical limitations and other cognitive impairments
- Assessed, tracked, and evaluated clinical goals and interventions of group and individuals on an ongoing basis
- Completed required documentation for ongoing music therapy services
- Collaborated with peers to implement music therapy interventions with clients
- Instructed patients in chimer and musical performances for annual public events

JENNIFER SOMEONE

777 Street Name, City Name, VA 22601
(777) 777-7777 emailaddress@su.edu

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Music Arranger

September 2012 – Present

V-Sound Music Studio, Taiwan

- Incorporated rhythm, tempo, tone, and harmony to balance a piece for music composed by others
- Created original music for use in commercials/events/activities
- Composed and transcribed musical scores
- Directed musicians during recording for music projects
- Utilized computer software such as Logic Pro and Pro Tools to make revisions to music composition

Music Album Producer

October 2013 – Present

V-Sound Music Studio, Taiwan

- Oversaw the development of projects, including controlling the recording sessions and supervising the entire process through audio mixing and mastering
- Collaborated with directors and supervised production assistants
- Arranged and raised funds and entities investors
- Facilitated publishing music projects

Music Teacher

January – July 2013

Bai-Ho Junior High School, Taiwan

- Instructed 13 to 15 year old students in a classroom setting for comprehensive instructional program in music
- Created lesson plans and modified accordingly throughout the academic year
- Integrated competencies, goals, and objectives into lesson plans
- Graded papers and performed other administrative duties as needed

Executive Planner, Administrator, and Project Manager

August 2010 – August 2013

GLOW Non-Profit Youth Organization, Taiwan

- Managed and directed the activities of programs
- Managed administrative functions to ensure smooth and efficient operations of the organization
- Collaborated with assistants to sustain and grow programs and services
- Participated in strategic planning based on SWOT analysis
- Supported the program's strategic alliances and partnerships
- Established and monitored performance reporting system

LANGUAGE SKILLS

Proficient in Mandarin and English, written and verbal
Proficient in Taiwanese, verbal

INSTRUMENTAL SKILLS

Proficient in Piano, Guitar, and Bass