SHENANDOAH UNIVERSITY
Financial Aid

2026-2027 Unusual Enrollment History Form

The federal government compares student's earned financial aid with the schools that student has attended in the past four years. Students who have earned aid at multiple schools may be selected for additional review. Per your FAFSA submission, you were selected for review of Unusual Enrollment History. Please complete this document for our review to be sure that you are currently eligible to receive federal aid. Failure to complete this document or incomplete submissions may cause a delay or prevent you from receiving federal aid.

Schools Attended:

- You must provide the following information for each school you attended in each year listed below. If you attended more than two schools in one award year, please attach a second sheet listing which schools you attended and in what school year.
- Be sure to list all of the schools you attended in the specified years below and that you have provided a transcript for each school to the Office of Admissions, as failure to do so may result in denial of financial aid at Shenandoah University.
